Synopsis: Daniela (27) has just moved into an old apartment and is ready to make it her new home. As the months go by, Daniela notices something strange happening: her clothes have cuts and holes in peculiar shapes. Her busy life is affected by these interventions until one day, behind the old clock, she discovers the culprit of this disaster: a monster with an old tailor shop hidden behind the walls, who has been using Daniela's clothes to make coats for all the animals in the neighborhood. Daniela must decide what to do about this tenant, who has transformed her clothes and her way of seeing life.
