

Short film | 2024 | Virtual Production Experimental Film

Directed by: Guillem Beltrà

Music: Yulia Protasova

Synopsis: Step into a world of neon lights and shadows with this experimental short film, crafted using cutting-edge virtual production techniques. Set in a mesmerizing cyberpunk city, the film introduces a mysterious humanoid character with hybrid creature-like features and a touch of darkness. This solitary figure, shrouded in mystery, finally emerges from the shadows to perform their ritual dance under the city's enigmatic glow. Open to interpretation, this artistic video serves as both a character introduction and a visual exploration of identity, solitude, and ritual in a futuristic, dystopian setting.
